Euregional tickets

Hop on the bus and train network and discover the Euregio Meuse-Rhine! This Euregio comprises five regions in three different countries: the region of Aachen (including the districts of Aachen, Düren, Heinsberg belonging to AVV and the district Euskirchen belonging to Verkehrsverbund Rhein-Sieg) on the German side, the southern part of the Dutch Province of South Limburg, the Belgian Provinces of Limburg and Liège, and the German-speaking community of Belgium.

The area covered by the Aachener Verkehrsverbund (AVV) is connected to the southern part of the Dutch Provinces of Limburg and Liège by numerous bus and train lines. The fare depends on the line you chose - here you find information on the cross-border tickets available within the AVV-Tarif, the transfer fares to the Netherlands between Aachen and Heerlen (Übergangstarif/transfer fare Heerlen) and the transfer fare between Aachen and Eupen (region3tarif).

euregioticket

The euregioticket is the best choice for those who want to discover the Euregio Meuse-Rhine. It can be used for journeys on most bus and train lines in the Euregio Meuse-Rhine and it costs 21.70 € for the entire day.

On weekends and national holidays in Belgium, the Netherlands or Germany up to two adults and three children can travel together on one euregioticket.

The euregioticket bike for only 4.30 € allows you to travel with your bike for a whole day!

region3tarif

The region3tarif is our fare systems for journeys by bus from the City of Aachen to neighbouring Belgium destinations.

The region3tarif fare applies to journeys in the City of Aachen, the Belgian regions shown on the map, and the lines indicated in Vaals, Netherlands.

PICK FROM THE FOLLOWING TYPES OF TICKETS:

- Single tickets
- Day tickets
- Monthly/annual passes
- Fare supplement tickets

Tickets for region3tarif journeys are available at the following locations:

- Single and 24-hour tickets can be purchased in the ASEAG and TEC busses and from the ASEAG ticket vending machines.
- Monthly/annual passes and transfer fare tickets for school-age children and university students are available for sale at ASEAG and TEC customer service centers.
- Holders of AVV-Job-Tickets can order a fare supplement ticket via their employer.

Transfer fare supplement tickets for the entire belgian zone are available for holders of AVV-Job-Tickets and for school-age children, trainees, and university students.

On weekends and national holidays the adult annual pass is valid for up to two adults and three children under 15 years in the respective zone all-day. On weekdays this rule applies after 7 p.m.

How to find the right fare and ticket price

Determine the required area of validity for your destination from the map. Then select the right ticket from the table.

A smart way to travel
between AVV and Heerlen (NL)

AVV-Heerlen transfer fare

The AVV-Heerlen transfer fare is a convenient way to travel between the AVV area and Heerlen, especially for commuters. Advantages of this special fare include:

- Journeys with the train RE 18 to Eygelshoven Markt, Landgraaf and Heerlen station
- Journeys on the No. 44 bus line (ASEAG/Arriva) to Heerlen and

Within the 6600 „Zentrum Heerlen“ fare zone you can use all arriva lines for the onward journey and use the trains to Heerlen Woonboulevard station.

Take your pick of the following fares for journeys:

- Single tickets
- 4-trip tickets (adult)
- Weekly passes (adult)
- Monthly passes (adult)
- Aktiv-ABO (for senior citizens)

Points of purchase for the AVV-Heerlen transfer fare:

- You can purchase single and 4-trip tickets from ticket vending machines, the bus driver (only single tickets are available in Arriva buses), authorized ticket offices, and customer service centers.
- To purchase weekly and monthly passes, a customer card is needed. The customer card is available from the customer service centers of the public transport operators. With this card, weekly or monthly passes are available for purchase from AVV ticket offices and customer service centers, and to some extent from ticket vending machines or the bus driver directly.

Please note: Tickets in Arriva busses and at Arriva ticket vending machines are only available with cashless payment (debit card or credit card).

How to find the right fare and ticket price

Ticketing in the AWW-Heerlen transfer fare system is similar to the AVV fare system. It consists of special fare categories that depend on the length of the journey. It is easy to determine which ticket is right for you: Just consult the table of fare categories that corresponds to your desired destination and select the right ticket from the table for you.

OV-Chipkaart

In the Netherlands the OV-Chipkaart is the ticketing system for buses and trains in the whole country. With this prepaid chip card you can pay your trips based on a fixed price per kilometer.

An anonymous OV-Chipkaart can be purchased at the DB Reisezentrum inside Aachen Hauptbahnhof for 7.50 €. There the OV-Chipkaart can be also be recharged as well as at all Dutch ticket vending machines – also at Aachen West and Herzogenrath station.

The card works on the basis of checking in when starting the journey and checking out when ending your journey. Validators can be found in the buses and at the stations or platforms for travelling by train. Please note, that an additional check-in and out is needed when transferring from bus to train or when changing to Intercity-trains e.g. in Heerlen.

For more information on the chip card, which is also available as a personalised card for Dutch subscriptions, please visit:

Transfer fare tickets

- ▶ Train: Holders of a valid AVV weekly or monthly pass – valid until Herzogenrath need to purchase a H2 ticket for a journey to the stations Eygelshoven Markt, Landgraaf, Heerlen or Woonboulevard. This ticket needs to be purchased and validated before beginning the journey. This ticket can also be purchased as mobile ticket in the naveo app.
- ▶ Alternatively, you can purchase a ticket from an Arriva ticket vending machine starting from Herzogenrath or, if your ticket is valid to Heerlen (eg Aktiv-ABO, AVV-Netz Plus ticket), from Heerlen to any train station in the Netherlands. In this case a check-in is not required.
- ▶ Bus line 44: If you have a weekly or monthly pass, valid in the city of Aachen, please purchase a Dutch ticket from the bus driver starting from the bus stop „Crombacherstraat“.
